

Assoc. Prof. Marek Šoltés, PhD., F.E.B.S./MIS Hon. is associate professor of surgery and chief surgeon of the Centre for Minimally Invasive Surgery of the 1st Department of Surgery UPJŠ LF and UNLP. His main focus is the field of laparoscopic surgery, he participated at courses and clinical visits in Paris (prof. Millat, prof. Fingerhut), Pécs (prof. Fuchs), Linz (prof. Wayand). Dundee (prof. Cuschieri, prof. Campbell), Rome (prof. Lezoche), Stuttgart (prof. Bittner), Bordeaux (prof. Dulucq) and Graz (prof. Uranues). In period 2015-2019 he served as a member of the Executive Board of the European Association for Endoscopic Surgery (EAES) and Chair of its Education & Training Committee, in period 2019-2023 he had been the EAES nominee in the United European Gastroenterology as a member of the Education Committee. With regards to education and training in surgery, he designed and guaranteed EAES endorsed courses of basic skills and suturing and knot tying in laparoscopic surgery. He serves as an editorial board member in journals Videosurgery & Other Interventional Techniques, SEES and Miniinvazívna chirurgia a endoskopia - chirurgia súčasnosti, as well as an International Advisory Board member in journal Hernia. In recent years he develops and implements the European specialty board exam in minimally invasive surgery (F.E.B.S./MIS) as a President of the European Board of Minimally Invasive Surgery of the European Union of Medical Specialists (UEMS).